By Foot...

Situated in the city centre the venue is easily accessed by foot.

The following link will help you find your way to the venue -
<http://eastcambs.gov.uk/maps/directions-council-offices>

By Train...

The Council Offices are situated on Nutholt Lane within walking distance from Ely Train Station, approximately 18 minutes via Bridge Street and Back Hill.

Please see the map below for the location of the Station and the Venue close to Ely Museum (Yellow square shows the location of the Venue and highlights the station):

By Car....

Please note that there is no reserved car parking at the East Cambridgeshire District Council Offices and parking in the Council car park is restricted to one hour.

Blue Badge Disabled Parking bays are available at the Council Offices with no time restrictions.

To help you find parking elsewhere please see the car park locations map attached separately and the information below.

If you are driving to the venue, please leave yourself plenty of time as Ely City Centre does get busy during the commute to work. If you are traveling and staying in Ely for the Examination we would recommend using the car parking at your accommodation where you can.

You may find the following website useful when planning your trip...

When you arrive.....

Please report to Front Reception, where you will be issued a visitor badge and escorted to the Council Chamber.

When you leave...

The Programme Officer will provide directions for leaving the building on the day.

If you have any questions whatsoever please feel free to contact the Programme Officer:
