Council meetings and all committee meetings that do not have separate public speaking schemes are preceded by a public question time, lasting 15 minutes or until the last question is answered whichever is the sooner.

Any member of the public can ask a question or make a statement on any topic. Questions/statements are set out in writing and put into a box to be drawn out by the Chairman of the meeting during the public question time. Members of the public can also send, fax or e-mail a written question/statement to Democratic Services and it will be placed in the question box.

As long as there is no suspicion that the question/statement is improper (for example it must not be offensive, slanderous or disclose information that the Council should keep confidential), the Chairman will invite the questioner (if present) to read out their question. No other statements should be made by the questioner unless at the Chairman's invitation. If the questioner is not present, the Chairman or Democratic Services Officer will read out the question/statement.

The question/statement will be answered by the Chairman of the meeting, who may give an oral answer or undertake to provide a written answer as soon as possible (such reply to be available to all Members). They may however decline to answer (e.g. on the grounds that the information requested is confidential).

Any questions/statements not answered because of lack of time, will be answered in writing as above as soon as possible.
