1. OUR VISION FOR EQUALITY & INCLUSION IN EAST CAMBRIDGESHIRE

As the district of East Cambridgeshire continues to grow and prosper, the population is becoming increasingly diverse.

The Council recognises and values the diversity of all people and communities in the district and in our workforce, and is committed to providing efficient, effective and relevant services to our residents and to ensuring that we are a good employer.

We welcome and celebrate diversity and the strengths that this brings to our communities and workforce.

The Council's vision is to improve the lives of our residents and to build a community where everyone has the opportunity to take part and be involved. This vision can only be realised through a true commitment by the Council and East Cambridgeshire's residents to promote diversity and ensure we recognise and celebrate difference within the context of fairness and equality.

Councillor Anna Bailey
Leader of the Council

John Hill
Chief Executive

2. OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

As a public sector organisation, the Council has a statutory duty to ensure that equality and diversity are embedded into all its functions and activities as required by the Equality Act 2010. The Equality Act legally protects people from discrimination in the workplace and in wider society. It is underpinned by the public sector Equality Duty, which supports good decision-making by ensuring public bodies (and others providing public services) consider how different people will be affected by their activities, helping them to deliver policies and services which are efficient and effective, accessible to all and which meet different people's needs.

The Equality Act legally protects people from discrimination in the workplace and in wider society. It introduced 9 'protected characteristics', making it unlawful to discriminate against someone on the grounds of age, disability, race, sex, sexual orientation, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, religion or belief, and pregnancy or maternity (see Appendix 1).

The Equality Act introduced a Public Sector Equality Duty. This Duty includes the General Duty and the Specific Duties. The General Duty requires public bodies to consider how the decisions that they make, and the services they deliver, affect people who share different protected characteristics. The specific duties require public bodies to publish information to show they did this.

The General Duty has three main aims. It requires public bodies to have 'due regard' to:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.
- Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

Having due regard means consciously thinking about the three aims of the duty as part of the decision-making process. This means that consideration of equality issues must influence the decisions reached by the public bodies in ways that include in how they act as employers, how policies are developed, evaluated and reviewed, how services are designed, delivered and evaluated and how services are commissioned and procured from others.

Advancing equality of opportunity involves considering the need to remove or minimise disadvantage suffered by people due to their protected characteristics, meet the needs of these people and encourage people to participate in public life where participation is low from people within the protected characteristics.

Fostering good relations involves tackling prejudice and promoting understanding between people who share a protected characteristic and others. East Cambridgeshire District is a very rural district and people living outside the larger towns can find it difficult to access services. We will treat people fairly wherever they live and make sure they get the services they need.

3. MEETING OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

To meet our equality responsibilities, the Council makes the following commitments:

- We will comply with Equality Act 2010 and any future equalities legislation.
- We will ensure Elected Members, employees, union representatives, volunteers, contractors, suppliers (and others as relevant) are made fully aware of the council's commitment to inclusion and diversity and how that affects their work.
- We will collect data on our service users and workforce and publish these annually (see Appendix 2).
- We will take proactive steps to reduce social, economic and geographical disadvantage or exclusion.
- We have adopted the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance working definition of anti-Semitism. In adopting this definition we have undertaken to oppose all forms of anti-Semitism, hatred and harassment towards people who belong to the Jewish faith, and people with a Jewish ethnic or cultural background (see Appendix 3).
- We have committed to being an anti-racist organisation and we will actively work in partnership and stand together to end all forms of violence and racism.
- We will provide training/development and updates as appropriate.
- We will use information and talk to people to identify where inequality exists so that we can plan to tackle it.
- When it will help us to improve our services and understand how we are meeting our equality duties, we will ask questions about people's protected characteristics. We will always make it clear that people do not have to answer these questions and that they will still receive the services they need. We will keep personal data confidential.
- We will consider equality issues when we deliver our services.
- We will publish our equality objectives every four years, which will help us focus on some of the areas which we want to improve.
- When we think about changing our services, we will make sure that those people making the decisions know how the change could affect people with any of the protected characteristics. We will collect information about how people might be affected before making decisions. If the change might cause difficulties for people with a protected characteristic, we will do our best to find ways to reduce this impact. If we cannot do so, then we should think carefully about whether we need to make the change to achieve a legitimate aim.
- We have a duty to make reasonable changes to the way we do things so that disabled people can use our services and work for us. We recognise that everyone is different and we will treat people as individuals.
- We will make sure that anyone who provides a service for us treats people fairly. We will do this through our procurement process and by monitoring their work.
- We will recruit, select, train and promote staff fairly. We will try to ensure that the make-up of our staff matches that of our community. We will have clear systems for staff to complain if they are treated unfairly.
- We will make it easy for customers to complain if something goes wrong and we will respond quickly and efficiently.
- We will expect all employees to be responsible for their personal conduct and acceptable standards. If we find that an employee has disregarded our equality policy we will investigate and take disciplinary action, where appropriate.
- We will ensure that all information produced by the Council is available in a variety of formats including Braille, audio, large print and a variety of languages.

4. WHAT WE ARE ALREADY DOING

- Providing accessible buildings and sites through dedicated disabled parking bays, ramps at entrances and exits, power assisted doors, accessible toilets, a hearing loop for people who are hearing impaired, and an accessible lift.
- Working alongside Living Sport to support sport opportunities for people with disabilities and special needs, so that everybody, regardless of disability or additional needs, can access sport or physical activity that suits them.
- Providing a range of leisure activities for the over 50s through the Mature and Active Programme to keep active and to maintain and improve their health and wellbeing.
- Promoting consultation and community engagement through the Council's Consultee Register.
- Providing translation services if a translation is required into another language or an alternative format, i.e. large print, Braille, audio cassette/CD: Translation Service
- Supporting the Cambridgeshire Equality Pledge with our local partners.
- Providing assisted collections to residents that are unable to put out their waste and recycling because of a serious long-term illness or disability.
- Providing a free of charge Clinical Waste collection service to collect and dispose of clinical waste which poses a threat of infection to humans.
- Offering assistance for Mandatory Disabled adaptations up to a maximum of £30,000 (subject to a test of resources): Disabled Adaptations
- Supporting and encouraging increased reporting of hate crime within the community at locations where victims of hate crime incidents feel safe and comfortable and specifically to extend the ways for victims of hate crime to access services through the development of 3rd party reporting centres. Currently in East Cambs there are two Hate Reporting Centres, one in Ely the other in Littleport. Our aim is to increase this to at least one Hate Reporting Centre in each Parish.
- Developing training packages for schools and businesses to prevent and deter hate crime/incidents by raising awareness of the impact of hate crime, consequences of perpetrating and building community cohesion across all communities. This will increase confidence in being able to report hate crime via the different methods available and raise awareness of local services that exist to protect and support victims and witnesses and challenge perpetrators.
- Providing advice and support for men and women affected by domestic violence (DV), including domestic abuse outreach sessions and a Domestic Violence Directory that lists contact details of organisations that can help individuals affected by this or those supporting people who are affected: Domestic Violence.
- Offering emergency refuge accommodation to women escaping abusive relationships through the Cambridge Women's Aid Refuge (CWA) and providing 'move-on' accommodation in the community for those leaving refuge.
- Providing support through the Community Hubs sited in various villages around East Cambridgeshire. The hub will provide people with support and will cover a range of topics from homelessness, debt and benefits to mental health issues and problems with anti-social behaviour.
- Delivering training and awareness to the workplace and schools through the Community Eyes and Ears Scheme, in relation to: Radicalisation, Hate Crimes, Modern Slavery, Cyber Crime and Scams, Neglect and Abuse, Exploitation, Abuse, Dementia and Loneliness.
- Producing a Live Safe leaflet for migrant workers because the district is attracting people as a place to live and work from across the world. Migrants can experience a number of different issues when working and living in the district and this leaflet informs them of their rights and responsibilities.

5. THE COUNCIL AS AN EMPLOYER

As an employer, we have a responsibility to understand the makeup of our workforce (see Appendix 4) and to meet the diverse needs of our employees. We also have a role to ensure that the workforce is equipped to meet the Council's commitment to promote equality, diversity and inclusion.

We are committed to promoting equality, providing an inclusive workplace and eliminating any unfair treatment or unlawful discrimination. This applies to all employment policies and practices including those relating to:

- Recruitment and selection, including promotion career progression;
- Terms and conditions of employment;
- Working environment;
- Training and development; and
- Redundancy and re-deployment.

We will achieve this by:

- Ensuring our recruitment and selection process is fair, consistent and transparent and that job opportunities are accessible to as wide and diverse an audience as possible.
- Providing a working environment where everyone is treated with dignity and respect, free from any form of inappropriate behaviour and one in which all employees can give of their best.
- Implementing reasonable adjustments in the workplace – in conjunction with the member of staff, line manager and Occupational Health (if required). We will endeavour to identify and meet different work-related needs such as providing physical adaptations or equipment and reviewing working arrangements for people with disabilities.
- Providing 'Work-life Balance' policies and guidance - including a range of flexible/alternative working patterns, parental leave and childcare scheme.
- Providing diversity awareness training.
- Monitoring the composition of the Council in line with statutory requirements (see Appendix 4). We will also monitor our recruitment process, from application to employment, to identify barriers.

There may be times when we will treat people differently to strive for an equitable outcome. For example, requiring a job applicant to have a particular protected characteristic, where an occupational requirement applies, such as recruiting only women to a women's refuge.

6. OUR EQUALITY OBJECTIVES FOR 2021-2024

The Council has identified the following equality objectives for the period 2021-2024.

1	As a Community Leader , we acknowledge with concern the published data on increases in hate crimes and crimes towards people with protected characteristics under the Equalities Act 2010. The Council condemns all forms of discrimination against all protected characteristics, and commits to ensuring that every resident of the District is treated with respect, dignity and in an equal manner.
2	As a Service Provider , we are committed to providing inclusive services which actively address inequality and exclusion by assessing the implications of our decisions on the whole community, to eliminate discrimination, tackle inequality, develop a better understanding of the community we serve, target resources efficiently, and adhere to the transparency and accountability element of the Public Sector Equality Duty.
3	As an Employer , we are committed to building an inclusive organisation where the workforce reflects the District we serve and where colleagues feel confident about being themselves in the workplace.

Underpinning each of these objectives is a set of actions and priorities that we will pursue. These are summarised in the Action Plan (see Appendix 5).

7. GATHERING DATA AND USING INFORMATION

One of the duties that must be carried out by any public sector authority is the gathering of information. This includes information on the profile of the workforce, information on the profile of the resident population, and how people are affected by the Council's policies and practices both in employment and service delivery.

The Council has gathered and will continue to gather this information in the following ways:

- Local population data, e.g. Cambridgeshire Insight, Census statistics etc
- Staff statistics and recruitment monitoring forms
- Gender pay gap data
- Flexible working applications
- Applications for training and development
- HR monitoring data, e.g. grievance, disciplinary etc.
- Staff surveys
- Staff engagement workshops
- Customer satisfaction surveys
- Equality Impact Assessments (EIAs)

7.1 Consultation and Engagement

The Council recognises the importance of consultation and engagement with the community, voluntary groups, stakeholders, local businesses and partners in the development and implementation of this policy in order that views can be considered and used to inform decision making.

Consultation took place between 28th September and 30th November 2020 on the new policy.

7.2 Equality Impact Assessment (EIAs)

As part of any effective policy development process, it is important to consider any potential risks to those who will be affected by the policy's aims or by its implementation. The Equality Impact Assessment (EIA) process helps us to assess the implications of our decisions on the whole community, to eliminate discrimination, tackle inequality, develop a better understanding of the community we serve, target resources efficiently, and adhere to the transparency and accountability element of the Public Sector Equality Duty.

The word 'policy', in this context, includes the different things that the Council does. It includes any policy, procedure or practice - both in employment and service delivery. It also includes proposals for restructuring, redundancies and changes to service provision.

A checklist is available to guide Council officers through the impact assessment process (see Appendix 6). In the first instance, the officer would complete an Initial Screening Template (see Appendix 7) to scope the impact and decide whether a full impact assessment (EIA) is required. If this identified the need for a full impact assessment, then the officer would complete the detailed EIA Template (see Appendix 8).

The Council's Committee Report Template makes reference to equality impact assessments. If a new/revised policy is being presented to committee, the officer should use the committee report template to indicate if an impact assessment has or has not been completed. If an impact assessment has been completed, then a copy should be attached to the committee report. If the impact assessment identifies barriers, the officer's report should make reference to the main findings and any proposed mitigation actions so this can inform decision making.

The results of our Equality Impact Assessments are published on our website. Copies can also be made available on request.

APPENDIX 1 - The Protected Characteristics

What are protected characteristics?

It is against the law to discriminate against someone because of:

- age
- disability
- gender reassignment
- marriage and civil partnership
- pregnancy and maternity
- race
- religion or belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

These are called protected characteristics.

You are protected under the Equality Act 2010 from these types of discrimination.

Age

A person belonging to a particular age (for example 32 year olds) or range of ages (for example 18 to 30 year olds).

The Equality Act 2010 says that you must not be discriminated against because:

- you are (or are not) a certain age or in a certain age group
- someone thinks you are (or are not) a specific age or age group, this is known as discrimination by perception
- you are connected to someone of a specific age or age group, this is known as discrimination by association

Age groups can be quite wide (for example, 'people under 50' or 'under 18s'). They can also be quite specific (for example, 'people in their mid-40s'). Terms such as 'young person' and 'youthful' or 'elderly' and 'pensioner' can also indicate an age group.

See the Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) advice and guidance on age discrimination.

Disability

In the Equality Act a disability means a physical or a mental condition which has a substantial and long-term impact on your ability to do normal day to day activities.

You are covered by the Equality Act if you have a progressive condition like HIV, cancer or multiple sclerosis, even if you are currently able to carry out normal day to day activities. You are protected as soon as you are diagnosed with a progressive condition.

You are also covered by the Equality Act if you had a disability in the past. For example, if you had a mental health condition in the past which lasted for over 12 months, but you have now recovered, you are still protected from discrimination because of that disability.

Disability discrimination is when you are treated less well or put at a disadvantage for a reason that relates to your disability in one of the situations covered by the Equality Act.

The treatment could be a one-off action, the application of a rule or policy or the existence of physical or communication barriers which make accessing something difficult or impossible.

The discrimination does not have to be intentional to be unlawful.

The Equality Act 2010 says that you must not be discriminated against because:

- you have a disability
- someone thinks you have a disability (this is known as discrimination by perception)
- you are connected to someone with a disability (this is known as discrimination by association)

It is not unlawful discrimination to treat a disabled person more favourably than a non-disabled person.

See the EHRC disability advice and guidance section.

Gender reassignment

The Equality Act 2010 says that you must not be discriminated against because you are transsexual, when your gender identity is different from the gender assigned to you when you were born. For example:

- a person who was born female decides to spend the rest of his life as a man

In the Equality Act it is known as gender reassignment. All transsexual people share the common characteristic of gender reassignment.

To be protected from gender reassignment discrimination, you do not need to have undergone any specific treatment or surgery to change from your birth sex to your preferred gender. This is because changing your physiological or other gender attributes is a personal process rather than a medical one.

You can be at any stage in the transition process – from proposing to reassign your gender, to undergoing a process to reassign your gender, or having completed it.

The Equality Act says that you must not be discriminated against because:

- of your gender reassignment as a transsexual. You may prefer the description transgender person or trans male or female. A wide range of people are included in the terms 'trans' or 'transgender' but you are not protected as transgender unless you propose to change your gender or have done so. For example, a group of men on a stag do who put on fancy dress as women are turned away from a restaurant. They are not transsexual so not protected from discrimination

- someone thinks you are transsexual, for example because you occasionally cross-dress or are gender variant (this is known as discrimination by perception)
- you are connected to a transsexual person, or someone wrongly thought to be transsexual (this is known as discrimination by association)

Intersex people (the term used to describe a variety of conditions in which a person is born with a reproductive or sexual anatomy that doesn't fit the typical definitions of female or male) are not explicitly protected from discrimination by the Equality Act, but you must not be discriminated against because of your gender or perceived gender. For example:

- if a woman with an intersex condition is refused entry to a women-only swimming pool because the attendants think her to be a man, this could be sex discrimination or disability discrimination

See the EHRC advice and guidance on gender reassignment discrimination.

Marriage and civil partnership

The Equality Act says you must not be discriminated against in employment because you are married or in a civil partnership.

In the Equality Act marriage and civil partnership means someone who is legally married or in a civil partnership. Marriage can either be between a man and a woman, or between partners of the same sex. Civil partnerships are available to both same-sex couples and opposite-sex couples.

People do not have this characteristic if they are:

- single
- living with someone as a couple neither married nor civil partners
- engaged to be married but not married
- divorced or a person whose civil partnership has been dissolved

See the EHRC advice and guidance on marriage and civil partnership discrimination.

Pregnancy and maternity

Pregnancy is the condition of being pregnant or expecting a baby. Maternity refers to the period after the birth, and is linked to maternity leave in the employment context. In the non-work context, protection against maternity discrimination is for 26 weeks after giving birth, and this includes treating a woman unfavourably because she is breastfeeding.

Find out more about the EHRC work on pregnancy and maternity in the workplace.

Race

The Equality Act 2010 says you must not be discriminated against because of your race.

In the Equality Act, race can mean your colour, or your nationality (including your citizenship). It can also mean your ethnic or national origins, which may not be the same as your current nationality. For example, you may have Chinese national origins and be living in Britain with a British passport.

Race also covers ethnic and racial groups. This means a group of people who all share the same protected characteristic of ethnicity or race.

A racial group can be made up of two or more distinct racial groups, for example black Britons, British Asians, British Sikhs, British Jews, Romany Gypsies and Irish Travellers.

You may be discriminated against because of one or more aspects of your race, for example people born in Britain to Jamaican parents could be discriminated against because they are British citizens, or because of their Jamaican national origins.

See the EHRC advice and guidance on race discrimination.

Religion and belief

Religion refers to any religion, including a lack of religion. Belief refers to any religious or philosophical belief and includes a lack of belief. Generally, a belief should affect your life choices or the way you live for it to be included in the definition.

See the EHRC guidance on religion or belief at work.

Sex

A man or a woman.

Sex discrimination is when you are treated differently because of your sex, in certain situations covered by the Equality Act 2010. The treatment could be a one-off action or could be caused by a rule or policy. It doesn't have to be intentional to be unlawful.

There are some circumstances when being treated differently due to sex is lawful.

See the EHRC guidance on sex discrimination.

Sexual orientation

Whether a person's sexual attraction is towards their own sex, the opposite sex or to both sexes.

The Equality Act 2010 says you must not be discriminated against because:

- you are heterosexual, gay, lesbian or bisexual
- someone thinks you have a particular sexual orientation (this is known as discrimination by perception)
- you are connected to someone who has a particular sexual orientation (this is known as discrimination by association)

In the Equality Act, sexual orientation includes how you choose to express your sexual orientation, such as through your appearance or the places you visit.

See the EHRC advice and guidance on sexual orientation discrimination.

APPENDIX 3 – ANTISEMITISM

The Council has joined with the Government and other local authorities across the UK in adopting the internationally recognised International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) definition of antisemitism, as follows:

“Antisemitism is a certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. Rhetorical and physical manifestations of antisemitism are directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals and/or their property, toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities.”

Contemporary examples of antisemitism in public life, the media, schools, the workplace, and in the religious sphere could, taking into account the overall context, include, but are not limited to:

- Calling for, aiding, or justifying the killing or harming of Jews in the name of a radical ideology or an extremist view of religion.
- Making mendacious, dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective — such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions.
- Accusing Jews as a people of being responsible for real or imagined wrongdoing committed by a single Jewish person or group, or even for acts committed by non-Jews.
- Denying the fact, scope, mechanisms (e.g. gas chambers) or intentionality of the genocide of the Jewish people at the hands of National Socialist Germany and its supporters and accomplices during World War II (the Holocaust).
- Accusing the Jews as a people, or Israel as a state, of inventing or exaggerating the Holocaust.
- Accusing Jewish citizens of being more loyal to Israel, or to the alleged priorities of Jews worldwide, than to the interests of their own nations.
- Denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination, e.g., by claiming that the existence of a State of Israel is a racist endeavour.
- Applying double standards by requiring of it a behaviour not expected or demanded of any other democratic nation.
- Using the symbols and images associated with classic antisemitism (e.g., claims of Jews killing Jesus or blood libel) to characterize Israel or Israelis.
- Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.
- Holding Jews collectively responsible for actions of the state of Israel.

APPENDIX 4 – PROFILE OF THE COUNCIL’S WORKFORCE

- 94% are white, 3% are black and 3% are of mixed ethnic origin.

- As at 31 March 2019, the women’s median hourly rate was £12.58 per hour, 4.7% lower than the male’s median hourly rate of £13.20 per hour. In other words when comparing median hourly rates, women earn £0.95 for every £1 that men earn.

APPENDIX 6: EQUALITY IMPACT ASSESSMENTS (EIA) – A CHECKLIST FOR OFFICERS

What is an Equality Impact Assessment (EIA)?

As part of any effective policy development process, it is important to consider any potential risks to those who will be affected by the policy's aims or by its implementation. The Equality Impact Assessment (EIA) process helps us to assess the implications of our decisions on the whole community, to eliminate discrimination, tackle inequality, develop a better understanding of the community we serve, target resources efficiently, and adhere to the transparency and accountability element of the Public Sector Equality Duty.

The word ‘policy’, in this context, includes the different things that the Council does. It includes any policy, procedure or practice - both in employment and service delivery. It also includes proposals for restructuring, redundancies and changes to service provision.

Complete

1	EIA - INITIAL SCREENING TEMPLATE	<input type="checkbox"/>
----------	---	--------------------------

To be completed when developing a new or reviewing an existing policy. Use the Initial Screening Template (IST) to scope the impact and decide whether a full equality impact assessment (EIA) is required.

The following questions can help you to determine whether a full EIA is required:

- Does the policy affect service users or the wider community?
- Is it a major policy, with a significant effect on how functions are delivered?
- Will it have a significant effect on how other organisations operate?
- Does it involve a significant commitment of resources?
- Does it relate to an area where there are known inequalities, e.g. disabled people’s access to public transport etc?

If a full EIA is required, go to Stage 2. If not, your IST will need to be countersigned by your Service Lead Officer and forwarded to the HR Manager (go to Stage 3).

2	EQUALITY IMPACT ASSESSMENT (EIA)		<input type="checkbox"/>
a)	Establish clear aims and objectives Questions (a) to (b)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What is the aim/purpose of the policy? ▪ Who is the policy intended to benefit and how? ▪ What outcomes do we want to achieve from the policy? ▪ How will the policy be put into practice?
b)	Gather information/data Question (c)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Is the EIA informed by any data? i.e. consultations, complaints, applications received, allocations/take-up, satisfaction/feedback data, access audits, census data, benchmarking, workforce profile etc.
c)	Assess likely impact and opportunities to promote equality Questions (d) to (g)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ What do you already know about equality impact or need? ▪ Is there a higher or lower take-up by particular groups? ▪ Have there been any demographic changes/trends locally? ▪ Are there any barriers to accessing the policy or service? ▪ Is there a differential impact on different groups? ▪ Is the differential impact an adverse one? ▪ Is the policy directly or indirectly discriminatory? ▪ Is the policy intended to increase equality of opportunity through positive action?

d)	Involvement and consultation Questions (h) to (j)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ How have you engaged stakeholders in gathering evidence or testing the policy proposals? The Consultation Register is available to assist staff in consulting with the Council's stakeholders. ▪ Who was involved, how and when where they engaged? ▪ Does the evidence show potential for differential impact? ▪ How will you mitigate any negative impacts?
e)	Make a judgement on the policy in light of data, alternatives and consultation Questions (k) to (l)	Option 1: No major change - the evidence shows that the policy is robust and no potential for discrimination.
Option 2: Adjust the policy - to remove barriers or to better promote equality.
Option 3: Continue the policy - despite potential for adverse impact or missed opportunity to promote equality, provided you have satisfied yourself that it does not unlawfully discriminate.
Option 4: Stop and remove the policy – if the policy shows adverse effects that cannot be justified.

Your EIA will need to be countersigned by your Service Lead Officer and forwarded to the HR Manager.

3	COMMITTEE REPORT (IF APPLICABLE)	<input type="checkbox"/>
----------	---	--------------------------

If your new/revised policy is being presented to committee, you should use the committee report template to indicate if an impact assessment has or has not been completed. Attach a copy of the completed IST/EIA to the committee report. If the IST/EIA identifies barriers, your report should make reference to the main findings and any proposed actions so this can inform decision making.

4	PUBLICATION OF EIA	<input type="checkbox"/>

The Council is committed to publishing the results of our EIAs on the Council's website. When the IST/EIA has been approved by Committee, then the final version should be forwarded to the HR Manager who will arrange for the documents to be published. You will need to send any background papers or appendices that are relevant. Copies of impact assessments can also be made available on request.

5	MONITOR & REVIEW	<input type="checkbox"/>

Impact assessments are an ongoing process that do not end once a document has been produced. A review that considers the actual impact of the policy should be undertaken no later than one year after its introduction. This is not repeating the IST/EIA, but going back to the original assessment and using the information and experience gained through implementation to check the findings and make any necessary adjustments.

APPENDIX 7: EQUALITY IMPACT ASSESSMENT – INITIAL SCREENING TEMPLATE (IST)

Does the evidence show potential for differential impact? How will you mitigate any negative impacts? Identified actions should be specified in detail for the first year but there may be further longer term actions which need to be considered. To ensure that your actions are more than just a list of good intentions, include for each: the person responsible for its completion, a timescale for completion, any cost implications and how these will be addressed. It is essential that you incorporate these actions into your service plans.

This completed EIA will need to be countersigned by your Service Lead Officer and forwarded to the HR Manager. All completed EIAs will be published on the Council’s website to demonstrate to local people that the Council is actively engaged in tackling potential discrimination and improving its practices in relation to equalities.
